"OPPOSITION TO TYRANNY, IS OBEDIENCE TO GOD."-THOMAS JEFFERSON.

RAVENNA, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1848.

Che Portage Seutinel.

SAMUEL D. HARRIS, JR., PUBLISHESS

mi ell mom The year, payable within six months, One year, payable after the expiration of all menths and within the year, One year, payable after its expiration,

No paper will be discontinued until all ar-

中的工作的

Mother, Home and Heaven. The three sweetest words in the English language are Mother, Home and Hear-

MOTHER-The first fond words our hearts express In childhood's rosy hours; When life seems full of happiness, As nature is of flowers; A word that manhood loves to speak, When time has placed upon his cheek, And written on his brow,

Stern lessons of the world's untruth. Wakeeded in his thoughtless youth, AND But aidly pendered news As time brings back, 'mid vanished years A mother'r foundest hopes and fears. The only Eden left untouched,

Free from the tempter's snare;

A Paradise where kindred hearts May revel without care; A wife's glad smile is imaged here, And eyes that nover knew a tear, Save those of happiness, Beam on the hearts that wander back From off the long and beaten track Of sordid worldliness, Like angels round the hearth at Home.

The end of all a Mother's prayers-The Home of all her dreams: The guiding star to light our path With hope's unchanging beams-The haven for our storm-tossed barque From out amorld where wild and dark.
The tempests often rise. But still in every darksome hour The hope will rise with holy power, And point us to the skies, Lamartine.

Without a cloud to intervene.

Where Mother, Home; and Heaven are seen,

Lamartine is described as having "a thinly sprinkled with grey. His features tigator. still retain a rare beauty of expression, and his form a princely, elegance. As a poet seesing a tervor of soul, a richness of fancy and a splendor of versification, which few have surpassed, as a prose writer, full of nerve, grandeur and beauty, as an orator lous and disinterested his principles all pure, his passions all noble, his instincts all eleed, what wonder is it that la belle France has not a son upon whom she looks with Conder pride?

He seldom takes part in the petty questions engendered in party strife, but when was only exceeded by his own. He only tory. It is very well to talk of the blesstally, no voice rang clearer or more indig.

or his own pockets, and clearing three bread is a better thing for a starving famiof the administration than Lamartine's. -All the warm impulses and quick sensibiland though perhaps speeches were made thetorical rules of the schoolmen, none were more thrilling, none pierced their way more electrically to the very center of the soul. He has been a deputy fifteen

So says. Wilcox, the poet! And who not respond to the sentiment? An one who lives and does nothing, had is he? A drone upon the earth?

- Swapping Henses .- During the past semer a sentleman from Posey county, ladiane, was travelling down the Ohio rivyear old colt, when by a sudden careen of the boat, all three were tilted into the river. The Hoosier, as he rose puffing and blowing above the water, caught hold of the tail of the colt, not having a doubt that the natural instinct of the animal would carry Banking in the United States.

From the Banker's Magazine for Februm the United States, as the following table wift show:--

Total number of Banks, 2209,831,000 $125,233,000 Circulation. Specie, $49,270,000
The States of Illinois, Mississippi, Iowa, Florida, and Arkansas, are without Banks $49,270,000

It would be an extremely useful study if one could give the exact difference between the state of the country in 1850, if there had never been a bank chartered, and the ac-tual condition at that time. Here are 798 Banks, representing one hundred and twenv-five and one quarter millions of dollars of the circulating medium of the country. the products and estate.

talized under it; our national wealth is thus breaking the bond of the oppressed, and setexaggerated, and our very worst of politi- ting the captive free distorted in the eyes of the world, because our diluted currency gives a false price to his rights, and to a knowledge of his strength; every thing. If we contract a debt for and, with the feelings which these inspire, on a period of three years, and a crisis oc-curs when the debt matures, we have the same property on hand which is thus rated are compelled to pay $4500. Why? Be- not to be rebuked, and with a stern purpose. He could imprison any one of his subjects, a moneyed aristocracy." The following as of our efforts dering tariff restrictions necessary at home. form, but that it will reach her palaces and get frightened, a contraction ensues, Banks people. fail, prices recede, bankruptcy follows, and a complete financial desolation prevades brow where genius sits enthroned, and a exchange These are the evils of Bank. full share to the intellectual progress of the lip quivering with enthusiasm." Though ing; the benefits must be enumerated be. age. I do not deny that there is a great searly sixty years of age, his locks are but fore we can weigh them .- Boston Inves- deal of moral worth in that country, and brilliant though often incoherent, as a legislator fearless, independent and scorning Wooster Bank and would redeem the notes land—it has pressed down the people into great principles are involved, when the escaped by clearing his office, locking the ings of the English law—of trial by jury deor, writing upon it—Broken,—which and of habeas corpus. These are good then rushed distracted to a refectory, called his throat and the rest of it in his bosom, years, and has always spurned party tram- a Yankee pedlar, "don't whistle that dog habit, and where they exist rather than to power, marked its progress by public community, are made in time to prevent established, and the great principles of libaway." "Why he ain't no use no how; he's too homely:" "Oh! buthe saves heaps of work " "How?" "Why he licks the plates and dishes clean, so that they never they exist rather than to power, marked its progress by public community, are made in time to prevent they exist rather than to power, marked its progress by public community, are made in time to prevent revolutions, instead of being the consequenters of the globe; and wherever they are recognized as freely as every quarter of the globe; and wherever they go, they carry with then an instinctive hatred of tyranny and the love of lib-library and made in time to prevent the globe, and this oppression sends them to disaffection, and terminated in the mest revolutions, instead of being the consequenters. One of they are recognized as freely as they are recognized as freely as they are recognized in our own country.

Is there one American in this broad land for the most crying evils of France was the interest of the most crying evils of France want washing; and mother says she would'nt part with him, no hew—for our new dog part with him, no hew—for our new dog part with him, no hew—for our new dog cessions to our population, and in peace alone the privilege of election. Laws of liberal views were not adopted by it; and beautiful illustration are all these proceedhain't got used to mustard yet."

"Methinks," said Miss Smix, "I merican citizens as zealously as those smoked segars. Still I look with leniency upon a single men who indulge thus; because, poor fellows, they think that's compact in the difference of soil in our country. From the heights of smoked segars. Still I look with leniency upon a single men who indulge thus; because, poor fellows, they think that's compact in the difference of smoked segars. Still I look with leniency upon a single men who indulge thus; because, poor fellows, they think that's compact in the difference of the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Ireland has not mingled admirer, would be smoke against my wish adopted, sons have not nobly rallied at the difference of the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of Montgo to the very last battle fought in Many watered by the blood of I last hall passed the bloo the Wil not proviso." of men and boys with poles on their should-

"Yes, sir-ee !"

ary, we learn the amount of Bank capital citizens, celebrating the glorious revolution

I came here, fellow-citizens, to hear and Supposing they have a trifle more than address you, as to mingle my congratulahalf, or five-eighths of specie, and that spe- tions with yours, upon the stirring and of the Banks, $30,730,000, to their paper country of the earth. I yield to abler and circulation, and we have an aggregate of stronger speakers the task of expressing about $155,000,000 for the exchange of such sentiments as become the subject and the occasion; but I yield in no jot nor tittle If we had no chartered paper issues, our to any one in the interest they excite, and stock of specie would be much larger, the hopes they inspire. The shouts of Libpaper, and the price of everything is en. us be grateful to Him who holds in his hances a like per cent. by this inflating, hand the fate of nations, and who guides All our tax bills are estimated upon it; our their purposes by wiser purposes of his expenses are rated by it; our debts are to- own; let us be grateful to Him, who is property when the circulation is redundant comes the determination to assert the one. at a specie price, and with but $3500 we of governments are investigated with a zeal The great tide of freedom is rolling on-But this is not the worst view of it - wards from the shores of Calabria to the The dilution of currency increases the English channel, the institutions, originatprice to an artificial standard, and tariff ing in barbarous ages, and sanctioned by laws, heretofore amounting to a prohibition, time and habit, but which have sacrificed are thus surmounted, and foreign goods are the happiness of the many to the power of imported sold at auction, and the proceeds the few, are giving way before it, with as and an unlimited power, even of life and carried out of the country in coin, because the artificial prices of paper money had already closed our foreign markets by ren. not stay the progress of this salutary re-This importation from abroad goes on un. her hovels, correcting the great moral and til the stock of specie runs low, the Banks physical evils which now press upon her

Fellow-citizens. I do not deny that there is much to be commended in the instituthe nation so recently the busy mart of tions of England, social and political. I mechanism, speculation, agriculture, and do not deny that she has contributed her many high traits of character well worthy of imitation. But the practical administrawas transacted after this wise: At an early such commendation. It is arbitrary and hour in the morning written hand-bills, oppressive—administered by a chosen class dated March 31, were seen posted in sev- for their own benefit, and not for the masseral places, announcing that a certain lawver of the place, in no wise remarkable for body of the people in two-thirds of the of that institution. As might have been a state of humiliation elsewhere unknown expected the office of the supposed agent in Chrisendom. Its right of primogeniture, was thronged by a continuous crowd, for at its feudal privileges, and its aristecratic least two hours. The poor fellow, ignorant of the notice, was fairly roasted out. of property, that scenes of distress -aye, of His astonishment equalled his vexation, distress on the largest scale—are passing and the chagrin of the trapped visitants there in a manner unknown in modern hisstairs at a bound down into the streets. He ly than trial by jury, and a house better protection than a habeas corpus. Proba-

who holds the keys of St. Peter, has found stances, into action. to feel, rather than to talk—not so much to a key to unlock the recesses of the human -I should not have said one word to you way for success. And so it is in Europe; time and experience may not easily overcie alone should be the exact basis of the striking events which are now passing in work of ages, and had entered into all the I published in the Democratic Review some paper money, we have 80,000,000 in spe- Europe, and the sound which is borne up- habits of life and the ramifications of socie- remarks upon the condition of that country. liberty, and maintaining their sway by of Paris, and occasioning consternation and powerful armies. The Austrians, too, with his Pandours and his Croats from the banks turbed in their occupations by the din of doubtless; say, $100,000,000 Here, then, the short of the Single of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of their city; and all this without the sunny plains of Italy. Almost in sight the least beneficial result, or any expectation which are appeared back the echoes from the New Letter of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of their city; and all this without the sunny plains of Italy. Almost in sight the least beneficial result, or any expectation which are appeared back the echoes from the New Letter of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of their city; and all this without the sunny plains of Italy. Almost in sight the least beneficial result, or any expectation which are appeared by the New Letter of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of the Alps, and all this without the sunny plains of Italy. Almost in sight the least beneficial result, or any expectation which are appeared himself over the midst of the Alps, and all this without the sunny plains of Italy.

when and where and as long as he pleas- quotations mark its spirit and objects: ed; and this horrible power was often exercised on the request of an abandoned mistress or a worthless courtier. The nobility were environed with great privileges; and among these were exemption from taxa
"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the same time, whenev.

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the progress of the recent events in the progress of the recent events in the progress of the recent events in
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an
the provisions:

"It provides that a homestead consisting of any quantity of land not exceeding 40 miles in extent. Detached forts strengthen approaches, and smaller defensive works and its appurtenances, to be selected by the death, over their vassals, as the people are son of Mary."

ing back upon its different phases, it is evi- rational liberty. The best April fool of the season tion of her government is entitled to no same results might have been obtain- shown by the following extract, alluding ordinary emercial administration of mind, the but such mortgage, or other alienation of same results might have been obtain- shown by the following extract, alluding with the people and went over to them in half century which has just passed away— of public happiness is beyond the reach of for eighteen years, disappeared like a land is entitled to the exemption above." the annihilation of feudality and aristocra- the governments, and it is therefore the dream. His government was dissolved, cy-equality the most perfect before the more necessary that they should use all the his dynasty terminated, his family expelled law; the abolition of primogeniture, in the means within their power to improve the from the kingdom, and the people took posdescent of property; national representa condition of the poorer classes of society, to session of the power that belonged to them. tion, and its natural consequence, the ren- extend the advantages of education to all. And what then? Any more blood? Any dering the representative chamber a central point of influence and authority—the fall of the ecclesiastical regime, with its and into the public employments. In this progress of revolutions, and have rendered secular riches and temporal power; the way, and in this alone, can the political ef- the word itself unacceptable to timid ears! ter, which was perpetrated with a coolness freedom of the press; (this was before the fervessence which is everywhere visible in There has been nothing of all this; and let laws of repression as they now exist)—and Europe, be safely guided, when it cannot us hope there will not be. A Provisional more than all, and above all, a public o- be wholly controlled. There is a forward Government has been organized, composed pinion ever vigilent to detect any abuse of movement in opinion, which can neither be of able and eminet men, some of them authority, and ever ready to demand meliomisunderstood nor put down. It has proknown through the civilized world; and all man named Bechtel, and the victim in for a Rutherford, poured half of it down by on the face of the globe there is no such tion and expulsion of the Bourbons, and the threat and intensity of guarantee for their patriotic conduct. They big the content and intensity of guarantee for their patriotic conduct. They lived in a house at the corner of School squalid misery as in the hovels of Ireland; revolution of 1830, still left much of pub- that operation depend essentially upon the have summoned a national assembly to that would tally more exactly with the threw down a Wooster one, and departed, nor was the spirit of man ever pressed lic freedom to acquire, and much for a ra- wisdom and justice of the governments, and convene in a short time, in order to preno one knows whither:—Cincinnati Herdown, as there, by the overpowering evils tional government to do. And, unfortune upon the forbearance of the people. Hap: pare a constitution for the French people; which surround him. Ireland is scarcely ately, the government of July began, after py will it be for both, if the changes de- and, in the mean time, all violence and Land stranges and a little cottage the country of Irishmen. It is the country a few years, to forget its promises, and manded by the present state of society, and resistance have ceased. The equality of the passer along the Ridge Road, about resistance have ceased. urchin in the neighborhood of Montreal to of England, which the sons of Ireland inand war have fulfilled all the duties of A. repression, too, were passed controlling the if its principles did not undergo a change, ings of the progress of a healthful public "Methinks," said Miss Smix, "I merican citizens as zealously as those born press; and some time since, an obsolete certainly many of its most obnoxious meas-opinion in France; and what a beautiful should not fancy to marry a man who in our country. From the heights of Abra- law of 1791 was revived, prohibiting pub. ures were adopted and pursued after that example for the other nations of Europe, smoked segars. Still I look with leniency upon a single men who indulge thus; because, poor fellows, they think that's complete the field crowned by the American troops of the America fort? If I were in a marrying mood, (and exertions of the American troops, in which disappeared before them almost without had not acquired by such a course of conthe blood of Ireland has not mingled with bloodshed. The King and his family, and duct as has since been adopted, and which to interfere with them in their own interour own, and in which her native, but our the members of his government have fled. left the French people no choice between nal concerns, and they seek to interfere

In every quarter of the Union meetings of French, German, Irish, and American citizens, celebrating the glorious revolution in France, and the spread of republican heart. His moral courage was but the to-night, my fellow citizens, had I not been time, experience, and exertion, will bring come It will make her joy the greater more tried by the difficulties of his position. induced to do do by a particular circum- with them their reward Not only will for what she has done, and her confidence The abuses of the government were the stance. A few years ago, while in France, the rights of man be appreciated, but their the firmer for what she has to do. Abance ty; and he was surrounded by despotic governments, jealous of the first aspirations of which were often breaking out in the streets ted by all, for the good of all, will be pracing the democratic become and in it. It is the right and the duty of American citiof the Danube, had descended the ridges arms, and sometimes by bloody conflicts in elements of human improvement, intellect. Spain, no higher tribute will have been of the Alps, and had spread himself over the midst of their city; and all this without ual, social, political and physical. He paid to the advancing opinions of the agr. of the dome of St. Peters, he watched, with tion of it. They were not revolutions; they periment in practice, which an ancient World to the Old interest and with many a threatening word, were riots and insurrections. I communi- king is said to have made in rebuke of his the progress of the Pope. But the work cated also the facts as disclosed by the wit- courtiers, and plant himself upon the shore went on. Naples is in a state of revolution; nesses on the trials of persons indicted for of the ocean, saying to its tides, flow not; Tuscany and Sardinia in a state of reform; those offences. It was shown conclusively and France of apparently peaceful progress in the new career opened to her.

I will not detain you by any recapitulation, however brief, of the abuses and oppressions which have engrafted themselves into those old governments. An American content of the spirit of the can ear might hear them, but an American days of May 1839. The sentiments of a instruct and to guide, what we could not the philantropist and christian, and we trust heart could not comprehend them. The journal which favored these proceedings, check if we would, and ought not if we the day is not far distant when our own sovereign was the sole legislator, with pow- may be judged by the term it employs when could. Human liberty, human equality, noble Ohio will fall into the ranks of the er to make and unmake laws at his pleasspeaking of the United States, whose gov. human improvement, moral and physical, people's progress, and exempt from the ed; and this horrible power was often ex- "It is, without doubt, beautiful to be an ed the progress of the recent events in braces the following liberal provisions:

rations in the institutions of the country." duced great changes, and will produce still of them well fitted for their position, and whose blood he stained his hands was Sa-The downfall of Napoleon, the restora- greater. Its operation is a question of with characters which furnish the best rah Bechtel, the woman whom he had es after marringe? Of course he would adopted, sons have not nobly rallied around A provisional administration has been or tame submission and armed resistance. with no other in theirs. They proclaimed, the standard of their chosen home?

England is in that condition which requires but one firm effort on the part of her people to extend those principles of Forested and adhesion to the new order of things, and the her people to extend those principles of Forested and adhesion to the new order of things, and the her people to extend those principles of Forested and armed resistance.

At that period, or about that period, (for on the 4th of July, 1776, that it is the right on the 4th of July, 1776, that it is the right on the 4th of July, 1776, that it is the right on the 4th of July, 1776, that it is the right of every people to abolish its government, and to institute a new one, "laying its foun."

The case has shocked afresh and to institute a new one, "laying its foun."

The case has shocked afresh and to institute a new one, "laying its foun."

The case has shocked afresh and to institute a new one, "laying its foun."

The case has shocked afresh and to institute a new one, "laying its foun."

The case has shocked afresh and to institute a new one, "laying its foun." A SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the window, Mr. Editor and see those string of men and boys with poles on their should
A SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the part of the new order of things, and the principles of the new order of things, and the principles were a guarantee dations on such principles, and organizing to the coming to an alarming state of things when its powers in such form, as to them shall such horrid crimes are multiplying in our measures. But the later years of the fall
SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the part of the new order of things, and the principles were a guarantee dations on such principles, and organizing to an alarming state of things when its powers in such form, as to them shall such horrid crimes are multiplying in our measures. But the later years of the fall
SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the part of the part of the new order of things, and the principles were a guarantee dations on such principles, and organizing to the coming to an alarming state of things when its powers in such form, as to them shall such the principles of the fall
SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the part of the new order of things, and the principles were a guarantee dations on such principles, and organizing to the country, but which practically are that the mighty change has been effected with a such form.

SMART DEVIL.—"Oh, just look out o' the part of the new order of things, and the principles are the principles of the part of the new order of things, and the principles are the principles of the part of the new order of things, and the principles are the principles are the principles of the new order of things, and the principles are the principles of the new order of things, and the part of the new order of things, and the part of the part confined to the few; to extend them to the with so little expenditure of human life. It en dynasty have been marked by measures happiness." But every people must judge midst. with a mare and a twoyear-old colt, when by a sudden careen of
"They are after fish in the pond I preate a government for the benefit of all, didesire. Unfortunately, our country is the end desire of numan life. It en dynasty have been marked by include to the lew; to extend them to the with so fittle expenditure of numan life. It en dynasty have been marked by including a settled determination to strength.

Great body of the people, and thus to creis bloodless not bloody revolutions that we evincing a settled determination to strength.

They are after fish in the pond I preate a government for the benefit of all, didesire. Unfortunately, our country is the "No sir. They are all one after the only one under the face of Heaven where only one under the face of Heaven where the right to change the government is a lar rights, till the foolish project of preventively."

They are all one after the only one under the face of Heaven where the right to change the government is a lar rights, till the foolish project of preventively. We know the itself a phenomenon. The sum of two fundamental principle of the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the rected by all, and accountable to all.

They are all one after the only one under the face of Heaven where the right to change it; and, if so, what in the market, and is perfectly content on the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the right to change it; and, if so, what in the market, and is perfectly content on the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the right to change it; and, if so, what in the market, and is perfectly content on the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the form they will substitute. We know the instance of the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the price of the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the price of the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the price of the political inserting government, and to only one under the face of Heaven where the price of the political inserting government is a price of the political inserting government. two hundred and fifty millions of dollars is stitutions. And it is therefore, in fact, the by a large portion of the chamber of Depuevery year ground out of the people, for only government beyond the reach of a ties, and by much that was able and liberal greater measure of political happiness than he has not greater opportunity to defraud existing the shares and the same took a place of the same as the same to the same as the same test as the same test as the same as the sam will be onward, and misfortune prepare the it is beset by no trials or difficulties which can who does not long for the termination of such a state of things?

It is half and the people upon this side of the Atlantic have manifested a lively interest ments in favor of liberty upon the continent of Europe. Whence came they?

From the Eternal City—from the head of the Catholic religion—the successor of St. Peter. Immediately on the Catholic religion the St. Peter. Immediately on the Pontificate, the Pontificate Pontificate, the Pontificate, the Pontificate Pontificate, the Pontificate Pontificate Pontificate Pontifica

The Homestead in Michigan.

We noticed the fact in the last Sentinel Some peculiar characteristics have mark- that passed the Michigan Logislature, onsweet home," for every family. The b 1 tion, an exclusive right to serve the State, er people are religious, they talk nonsense." are placed, at regular intervals, along the owner thereof, and not included in any re-"Our Saviour is called the Democratic whole wall. It is an immense fortification, corded town plat, or incorporated city or no of Mary." death, over their vassals, as the people are son of Mary."

one of the most extensive in the world.—

village, or instead thereof, at the option of the completely commands the city of Paris, the owner, a quantity of land not exceed-1789 had swept away many of these rel- recently been construed into a condemna- and is garnished with an immense train of ing in amount one lot, being in either the ics of barbarism. That great event did tion of the principles of revolutions brought artillery, ready for any operations the gov. latter case within a recorded town plat, or more for haman liberty, for freedom of about by the people seeking the redress of ernment might direct in their fortification, incorporated city or village, and the dwellmore for human liberty, for freedom of thought and action, than every thing which had occurred in the world during the ten ing of my heart, a word of my mouth, nor preceding centuries.

There never was a feel. and in the city itself, when these troubles ing house thereon, and its appurtenances, broke out, the government had collected a preceding centuries.

There never was a feel. broke out, the government had collected a preceding centuries.

There never was a feel. broke out, the government had collected a owned and occupied by any resident of this state, shall not be subject to forced sale on What I thought of it, will appear from the following extract of the remarks, to which I shall more particularly refer byand-by:

"It has accomplished a vast benefit for an act of my life, which would give any man to quote from my remarks upon the condition of France, one single remarks to the following extract of the remarks, to the following extract of the very purpose of putting down all opposition to the course it was proposed to adopt. And what was the result of this great army of one hundred thousand men, among the best disciplined troops in the execution, or any other final process from world, and collected for the very purpose of putting down all opposition to the course it was proposed to adopt. And what was the execution, or any other final process from world, and collected for the very purpose of a court, or for any debt or debts, growing out of or founded upon contract, eith France and for the world; though, in look- sentence inconsistent with the progress of seemed to be? The fortifications did not vides that such exemption shall not extend fire a gun; the resistance in the streets to any mortgage thereon lawfally obtained. dent that, with less exaltation of mind, the What I thought and what I foresaw, are did not produce as much bloodshed as an but such mortgage, or other alienation of ed, and years of trial and suffering spared to the condition of Europe, and of the changto the country. Almost all the existing ines that were in progress.

with the people, and went over to them in ried man, shall not be valid without the sigthe hour of trial. The collossal power nature of the wife to the same. Any perthe hour of trial. The collessal power nature of the wife to the same. Any perstitutions of France owe their origin to the "But in Europe, this last great element which Louis Phillippe had been building up son owning & occupying a house on leased

Another Horrid Murder.

The Philadelphia Bulletin of April 3.

The morning papers are full of the details of a most bloody and shocking characand deliberation having few parallels, by on Saturday evening last.

The murderer in this instance is a boatkill 6th and Thompson streets, in a village in the District of Penn, called 'Texas,' which place rears its head in bold view

Betchtel burning with jealousy and maddened by rum, without the slightest immeknife inflicted a wound upon her throat, from which she died in about forty minutes. He boldly avowed the crime, and coolly succeed. The murderer made no effort to

The Farmer follows his plough, sits